

THE RED WEDDING

DISCOVER THE WORLD OF TRADITION

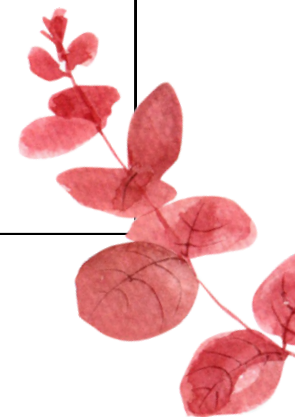

Established in 2007, driven by my passion and desire to preserve one of the unique traditions of the Chinese culture, as well as to bring joy to those around me.

The Red Wedding specializes in the rental and sale of traditional Chinese wedding attire - Qun Kua and Ma Kua. They are all handmade from the finest materials and finished mostly with a tapered fit to match the modern bride's quest for a flattering cut.

Red has always been revered as an auspicious colour for the Chinese. This bright red attire is usually hand-embroidered with motifs such as dragons, phoenixes, bats, pomegranates, or peonies. All of these symbolize wealth, prosperity, abundance, love, fertility, and good fortune.

If you would like to embrace something that is Classic, Always & Forever, let's speak soon.

STANDARD SERIES QUN KUA

The Dragon and Phoenix Qun Kua 龙凤褂 is a traditional and exquisite Chinese wedding attire. Red has always been regarded as an auspicious colour for the Chinese.

This bright red attire is usually hand-embroidered with motifs such as dragons, phoenixes, bats, pomegranates, or peonies. These signify wealth, prosperity, abundance, love, fertility, and good fortune.

The Standard Series Qun Kua 小五福 offers a classic and timeless design, exuding a youthful and energetic vibe. With an embroidery density of 50-60%, it caters to brides seeking a minimalist style. Additionally, the "red and vibrant" design enhances one's complexion.

STANDARD SERIES QUN KUA TANG JACKET

Tang Jacket 唐装 has emerged as a popular and meaningful choice for grooms, combining historical elegance with a touch of modern sophistication. It features a stand-up collar, closed with a row of Chinese-style knots or buttons along the front, and is often adorned with intricate embroidery or subtle patterns.

The fabric choices can vary, but silk, brocade, or other high-quality materials like velvet are often preferred to enhance the overall appearance.

CELINE KAN - BRIDE'S REVIEW

I always dreamed of wearing a Kua for my wedding tea ceremony. After searching online, we chose The Red Wedding for our traditional outfits. We loved the Kua and Tang Jacket and received many compliments from family and friends. The service from Janet was amazing, and I highly recommend their variety of Kua and jackets.

STANDARD SERIES QUN KUA PREMIUM SERIES MAKUA

Ma Kua 马褂 comprises a mandarin-collared jacket worn over a long robe 长袍 and slacks. It is usually adorned with embroideries such as dragons that signify wealth and strength, or cranes that symbolize longevity and wisdom.

QUEEN SERIES QUN KUA

The Queen series Qun Kua 中五福 / 大五福, with its intricate embroidery and richer colors, boasts a 70-80% density of gold and silver thread embroidery. This attire is perfect for brides who appreciate traditional elements and vibrant colors in their wedding attire with a luxury feel.

With its balanced distribution of gold and silver threads and red fabric, it is a reliable choice for brides of all body shapes, whether they are slightly chubby or slim.

LUKAS NG - GROOM'S REVIEW

Rented traditional outfits for my wedding. Despite her wide range of Kua selections, Janet quickly recommended to my wife and me the designs that best suited our body shape and skin tone. The experience was fuss-free and enjoyable in Janet's lovely place.

Thank you, Janet, for all your help! Our wedding photos look so good thanks to you.

QUEENBEE SERIES QUN KUA

The luxurious QueenBee series Qun Kua 褂后 is crafted with approximately 90% gold and silver thread embroidery, leaving a hint of the red fabric to impart a festive feel. It's the perfect choice for brides seeking a refined yet cost-effective look.

For brides with a fuller figure, the QueenBee series offers a comfortable fit that conceals imperfections. You can grab this opportunity to make a statement at your wedding with this stunning outfit.

CARA CHAN - BRIDE'S REVIEW

Thank you, Janet, for helping us pick our kuas on our wedding day. Good quality kuas, very traditional, and I got many compliments from my family and friends.

A pleasant and smooth experience with Janet, and I would recommend to-be married couples to check her out!

KING SERIES QUN KUA

The King series Qun Kua, aka 褂王, is the crème de la crème of traditional Chinese wedding attires. This extremely luxurious and exquisite gown is adorned with 100% embroidery, entirely covering the red material, resulting in a different overall color and a magnificent effect.

It typically takes a skilled artisan approximately a year to complete such a garment. It is a must-have for brides who prioritize elegance and wish to look majestic on their wedding day.

CHANEL LI - BRIDE'S REVIEW

We love the kuas! My husband and I adore our culture, but cheongsams never suited my shape, and the kuas we saw online were too plain. Then we found The Red Wedding just 3 weeks before our wedding.

Janet was incredibly helpful and knowledgeable, quickly finding us beautiful kuas that fit perfectly. I received many compliments on my wedding day.

We're so happy we chose The Red Wedding. Thank you, Janet!

MOTHER SERIES QUN KUA

Not keen on exposing your arms or looking to cinch your waist? We've got you covered! Tailored with a slightly different cut from the bride's and in a different base color, this classic attire is a perfect option for mothers looking for something with a more forgiving fit.

Be ready to turn heads, exude confidence, and poise with this stunning attire.

XIU HE FU

Xiu He Fu 秀禾服, often mistaken as the Dragon and Phoenix Qun Kua 龙凤褂, is another type of traditional Chinese wedding attire brides can consider wearing.

This attire sports a right diagonal placket (opening) for the top and has a wide and loose sleeve opening. It is paired with an A-line cut skirt, otherwise known as Ma Mian Qun 马面裙, which has a central pendulum area embellished with design motifs.

Using an entirely different embroidery technique known as Chao Xiu 潮绣, the stitches are flatly laid. However, the diversity of colorful threads usually makes up for the lack of 3-dimensional depth on the motifs.

The design motifs used on these attire are more diversified. Not only can they feature the Dragon and Phoenix, but also any flowers, animals, or motifs that symbolize marital bliss, good luck, and fortune in Chinese culture and traditions.
